

No Eggs, Milk or Butter

The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

In many other recipes the number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more by using an additional quantity of ROYAL Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

EGGLESS, MILKLESS, BUTTERLESS CAKE

1 cup brown sugar
1 1/4 cups water
1 cup seeded raisins
2 ounces citron
1/4 cup shortening

1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
5 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder

The old method (fruit cake) called for 2 eggs

DIRECTIONS—Put the first eight ingredients into saucepan and boil three minutes. When cool, add the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake in moderate oven in loaf pan (round tin with hole in center is best) for 35 or 40 minutes. Ice with white icing.

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients, mailed free. Address Royal Baking Powder Co., 135 William Street, New York.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Made from Cream of Tartar, derived from grapes, adds none but healthful qualities to the food.

No Alum

No Phosphate

The WEEK'S DOINGS

KEEP-U-NEAT LEANS LOTHER LEAN

H. G. Castle, proprietor of the Hotel Castle, Omaha, was in the city last week visiting friends. Mr. Castle is one of the most widely known hotel men in the west and his hostelry is very popular among western Nebraska people who visit Omaha. Mr. Castle pays frequent visits to this end of the state and is always welcomed.

C. A. Newberry of Alliance is attending the Conservation Congress in Omaha this week and also including a business trip to Chicago. He was in Omaha Monday and today, visiting Chicago between time.

Adrain Keane returned Saturday from a trip to Omaha.

P. Van Graven, proprietor of the Van Graven Studio, left Monday night for Denver to attend a convention of photographers, being held this week in that city. By mingling with photographers from all sections of the country, viewing the exhibits of the finest examples of the photographic art, and listening to and taking part in the discussions, he hopes to be able to come back better prepared than ever to give the people of this section the benefit of his experience and ideas in the making of photographs.

C. A. Newberry of the Newberry Hardware Company on Sunday night left for Chicago, on business. He stopped at Omaha on his way to be in attendance at the conservation congress in session in Omaha this week. Mr. Newberry attends the congress as a delegate from the Commercial Club and also the city.

Jess L. Barnett of the Newberry Hardware Co., left Monday noon for Gordon for a short business trip. His son Alvin returned with him. Alvin has been attending an eastern college for the past year, taking an electrical engineering course.

On Sunday L. F. Hulman, general manager of the Nebraska Potash Works, left for Denver. He intended making the trip in his Packard car.

Mrs. W. E. Spencer arrived home Saturday following a two weeks' visit at Lincoln and Norfolk. At Lincoln she attended the grand lodge meeting of the Eastern Star and also visited her son who is attending the university. At Norfolk she visited at the home of her sister.

H. M. Bushnell, Jr., secretary of the Alliance Commercial Club, is in Lincoln this week attending the annual convention of the Associated Commercial Clubs of Nebraska and the conservation congress. The Commercial Club convention was to have been held in Alliance this week, but owing to the fact that the conservation congress was called for the same time and so many who would be delegates to the convention had also been appointed delegates to the congress, it was deemed best to hold the two meetings on the same dates in Omaha. Alliance has been assured of the 1918 convention.

Mrs. E. G. Laing was at Hemingford Monday where she was in the interests of the Red Cross auxiliary being organized there.

Glen Churchill arrived from Denver Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Watson were over-Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Watson's sister, Mrs. M. L. Thares, at Bridgeport.

Mrs. C. L. Lester left Sunday for Bayard.

Mrs. D. W. Butler enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Henry Heckert of Red Oak, Iowa, the first of the week.

Mrs. Sarah Rudyard was a Hemingford visitor the last of the week.

Leonard Horner of Lakeside, a member of Company G, was in Alliance over the week end to attend the federal inspection.

Mrs. T. B. Shrewberry and daughter, Miss Nell, returned to their home at Ellsworth Sunday afternoon, following a few days' visit here with friends.

John Leisy shipped two cars of stock to Ellsworth last week from here.

Mrs. Frank O'Conner returned to her home at Ellsworth Saturday following a short visit in this city.

L. E. Dunn returned to Alliance Monday after spending several days on his place east of Ellsworth.

It is reported that in an examination given in school district No. 16 the question "Name the five largest cities in the United States" was answered as follows: Marsland, Hemingford, Berea, Alliance and Letan. And the correspondent comments, "Of course they passed."

School district No. 1, taught by Miss Irma Lotspeich, closed for the summer on Friday. The closing day was marked by a program and picnic dinner in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hawkins of Letan were Alliance visitors Sunday.

Ben Pitman and Elmer Byerly were here from Chadron this week on business.

The only suitings bearing the stamped all-wool guarantee on every yard are handled exclusively by Roy B. Burns at the Keep-U-Neat Tailor Shop.

A new air compressor has been installed in the dental office of Dr. James Maxfield.

Donald Spencer returned home from Lincoln Saturday. He has been attending the state university.

John McCoy, M. D.
Offices and Hospital
Reddish Block Telephone 81

Harold Judd returned to Alliance Saturday for the federal inspection of Company G, of which company he is a member.

The Robert Driscoll family has been spending a few days in town this week. They came in Saturday.

Oscar O'Bannon returned to Alliance from Omaha Thursday. He was in Omaha on business.

MONEY TO LOAN ON MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Those who think of building, this spring, should see us at once.

F. E. REDDISH & SON,
202 1/2 Box Butte Ave.

E. H. Boyd was a business visitor at Omaha last week.

Rex Truman, of the Alliance high school faculty, has been appointed as assistant to County Agent F. M. Seidell. Mr. Truman will receive a certificate of appointment from Washington, D. C. He is instructor in agriculture at the high school. County Agent Seidell has so much to do that he finds it hard to do justice to everything. The services of Mr. Seidell are in demand all over the county and in a number of instances he has been sent outside of the county. Mr. Truman will spend most of his time this summer at the office in the court house.

A. V. Gavin was at Edgemont the first of the week.

A large class was initiated into the Fellowship degree at the Masonic temple Friday evening.

Mesdames W. F. and F. M. Seidell returned Saturday afternoon from Chadron where they visited with friends for a couple of days. They made the trip by auto.

Mrs. H. L. Castle has been visiting her son, H. G. Castle, at Edgemont, the past week.

J. R. Phelan returned to Denver Thursday following a business visit here.

G. E. Davis was a business visitor at Edgemont a part of last week.

Fred L. Taylor, who for a couple of weeks assisted County Agent Seidell in the county agent work in this county, went to Chadron last week to relieve County Agent Thomas of Dawes county. It is possible that Mr. Taylor will be stationed there permanently. Mr. Thomas resigned as county agent of Dawes county to accept a position at the national dairy farm near Washington, D. C.

William King and Frank Wilson made an automobile trip to Denver last week. From Denver Mr. King went to Kansas City.

Mrs. J. M. Miller, who was operated upon at St. Joseph's hospital here last week, is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. J. W. Perkins was here from Bridgeport over the week end.

George Deitlen spent the week end with his people on the place near the Rice ranch.

Hon. Lloyd C. Thomas is at Omaha this week in attendance at the conservation congress and the state convention of the Associated Commercial Clubs of Nebraska. Mr. Thomas is state chairman of the committee on potatoes and beans. He attends the congress as committee chairman, delegate from the Alliance Commercial Club, Nebraska Press Association, City of Alliance and The Alliance Herald.

Fred Cutts, employed at Thiele's, went to Denver last week to see about entering the army hospital corps.

W. L. Reddington left Monday for Edgemont, having been called there by sickness.

J. G. Dole was at Edgemont Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ford left Tuesday for Sheridan for a week's visit.

E. W. Bell was a business visitor at Halsey Saturday.

William Green left Monday for Sheridan.

Sunday afternoon a frame shed located at the rear of the Conley Miller store at unpaved Box Butte avenue and Second street caught fire from hot ashes that had been dumped at the side of the shed. The fire made considerable smoke and soon attracted a large crowd. The fire department responded to the call and soon had the fire out. The damage is estimated at not more than $25.

Mrs. L. H. Masher left Sunday for Denver and Gunnison, Colo. At Denver she met Mr. Mosher, who had been east, and the two went to Gunnison for a short visit before returning to Alliance.

W. M. Weidenhamer made a business trip to Edgemont Monday.

G. V. Harrington, who had been visiting relatives at Deadwood, returned to Alliance Sunday.

Ed McNulty and F. J. Connors were week-end visitors at Denver.

E. L. Weldin of Seneca was an Alliance visitor over the week end.

Fred Holloway left Saturday for a visit at Havelock.

R. H. Rhodes of Kansas City is now night caller in the office of the chief dispatcher at the Burlington.

Mrs. Edward Tatro returned yesterday from Salina, Kans., following a short business visit there.

Captain Wallace, master officer of inspection, United States Army, who was here Sunday to inspect Company G, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Laing on that day. Captain Wallace and Mr. Laing were in the same company following their return from the Philippines. Captain Wallace was a lieutenant at that time.

Mrs. J. B. Anderson and son, Barton, of Torrington, Wyo., were Alliance visitors last week.

Mesdames J. Rowan and Moet Johnson were at Scottsbluff Saturday and at Hemingford Monday, in the interests of the Red Cross work.

R. W. Murphy was called to Grand Island last week on account of the illness of his mother.

Rev. Ralph Houseman of Omaha addressed the Presbyterian Sunday school Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Rowley was in from Ash Grove Friday. While here she purchased some farm implements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Andrews are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Schlupp at Sioux City. They left last week. From Sioux City they expect to go to California for a visit of a few weeks.

Smith P. Tuttle was at Columbus, Nebr., the last of the week in attendance at the state G. A. R. encampment.

Charles Reed was here from Torrington, Wyo., the middle of last week, visiting his mother, and attending to business matters.

Mrs. J. S. Paradis, who spent about five weeks in this section visiting old friends, left last week for Denver to visit her son Albert and his wife. From Denver she will return to her home at Monte Vista. Mr. Paradis is adjutant at the soldiers' home at Monte Vista. He was in the newspaper game at Hemingford about 1887, also serving as postmaster. About 1896 he moved to Alliance acting in the same capacity. Some sixteen years ago he left Alliance for Denver where he went into the job printing business.

Miss Alice Rockey leaves Saturday to attend the graduation exercises at Ravenna.

Mrs. N. C. Peterson has been visiting her daughter at Scottsbluff the past week.

According to information received here, M. J. Kenney, at one time employed in the Burlington shops here as a machinist, is enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam and is now with the mosquito fleet stationed off Norfolk, Va., patrolling the waters and keeping on the lookout for U-boats.

E. J. Macken left Friday for Charlton, Ia., for a visit with friends.

Harry Breyn of Denver is now employed at the Alliance office of the Adams Express Company.

Samuel B. Otto was here from Aurora the last of the week closing up the estate of the late Ferdinand Basting. Mr. Otto is administrator of the estate.

Last week John O'Keefe sold a quarter section of land two miles west of Alliance to Kilpatrick Brothers. The consideration was $4,320. E. D. Banks, ranch manager for the Kilpatricks, made the deal. The quarter section is to be used as a rest pasture. Cattle driven in to Alliance from the ranch twenty-five miles away are not in the best of condition to be loaded immediately. They will be turned into the quarter to rest before being loaded. Calves shipped in will also be rested up before being driven to the ranch.

Raymond Rust, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rust, living in the Ash Grove neighborhood, is recovering from a broken collar bone received when he fell from a spring wagon a week ago.

Miss Grace Michael was here from Hemingford Saturday.

Elting Bennett was at Deadwood the last of the week.

Prospects of a record-breaking crop in this section of the country are indeed bright. Around two inches of rain fell from Saturday until Monday night and while the ground was by no means dry, yet the rain was needed, for this section can use rain most any time. In the Black Hills the rain lasted four days. A heavy rain is reported from all over the state. Casper reports a light snow.

County Agent F. M. Seidell is making arrangements for the Alliance canning school to be held at the Central school in Alliance, June 22 and 23. The attendance at this school will be made up of men and women who pledge themselves to teach others how to can vegetables. All organizations such as women's clubs, lodges, etc., are entitled to send representatives. Women are asked to come who will later volunteer their services as canning teachers. These will likely be used in teaching canning to groups of women in their own locality, or in teaching groups of girls to can vegetables. Gardening supervisors and their attendants will be privileged to attend. An enrollment fee will be charged sufficient to cover the fuel and vegetable expenses. The school will last two days. The morning sessions will be devoted to laboratory work. That is, the students will actually can each type of vegetable. The afternoons will be given over to demonstrations and discussions. There will not only be discussions of methods for canning fruits, vegetables and meats but methods of teaching, as well. There will not be more than forty enrolled at this school. Towns as far east as Thedford and as far west as Marsland are expected to send representatives to this school. Those desiring to enroll should send their names to Mr. Seidell or Mr. Truman at once as all enrollments close June 1, 1917.

A. M. Miller of Hemingford was in town on business between trains Tuesday.

Mrs. D. W. Kenner was a Hemingford visitor Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gasseling of Hemingford were Alliance visitors the last of the week.

Mrs. F. H. Bronkhurst returned the first of the week from a visit at Lead and Deadwood, S. D.

B. U. Shepherd was down from Hemingford Saturday and Sunday. He returned to Hemingford Sunday evening.

Mrs. H. L. Arrson has gone to Arcadia, Fla., having been called there by the illness of her mother.

The two-weeks-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Balz of Hemingford died Monday morning. The funeral was held Tuesday, Rev. York of that place conducting the services.

WE DON'T KEEP THE BEST—WE SELL IT

FEED—

PAINTS—

OILS—

FUEL—

ICE—

CORN, OATS, WHEAT and all kinds of CHICKEN FEED

MARTIN - SENIOR PAINTS and VARNISHES for every purpose. You can buy no better.

GASOLINE, KEROSENE We'll save you many a dollar before fall comes.

VAUGHAN & SON

PHONE NO. 5

Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Walker, Miss Grace Spellman and Alex Olds were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kenner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caha were here from Hemingford Tuesday.

The Misses Grace and Etta Michael of Hemingford were in Alliance Tuesday. Miss Etta left for Kansas City to resume her studies. Miss Grace remained to have some dental work done.

Representative Lloyd C. Thomas was at Hemingford Friday in attendance at the regular community club luncheon at the Phillips hotel. Mr. Thomas delivered a talk at the luncheon. He was accompanied by F. A. Pierson of Gothenburg, a former resident of this city. They made the trip in the Herald's Crow Elkhart car.

W. L. Olinger of Grand Island was in Alliance Tuesday.

C. F. Smith, who is the Alliance dealer for the Hudson Super-six, has purchased two lots on West Third street and expects to begin building operations there soon for the erection of a new garage. For some eight years past Mr. Smith has been connected with garage work.

J. F. Tiller, until a short time ago owner of the five, ten and twenty-five cent store in Alliance, has been appointed a state inspector of food, drug and oil products, with headquarters in Lincoln. Several months ago Mr. Tiller sold his store to a company operating a number of ten-cent stores over the state, and was in active management of the store until recently.

Enoch Boyer has dismissed his suit against the city of Alliance in which he was seeking damages due to changes made necessary in putting sidewalks to grade in front of his property at unpaved Box Butte avenue and Eighth street. The city, in consideration of the dismissal of the case, will replace three blocks of cement walk and reset a shade tree.

The Newberry Hardware Company has been awarded a contract for $100,000 worth of new equipment to be installed in the plant of the Nebraska Potash Works Company at Antioch. The order is the largest one ever placed in Alliance. Mr. Hulman, manager of the potash works, states that the intention is to build a complete new plant to be completed about November 1. The plant will then represent a million-dollar investment. The Newberry company is capable of filling exceptionally large orders and meeting emergencies.

At a session of the city council held Thursday evening the council, at the request of the Commercial Club, approved a plan of making a three-mill levy for amusement and park purposes. The money will be used in the support of the park and in maintaining a band. The levy will be made at the annual meeting held for the purpose of fixing the tax levy. Secretary Bushnell of the Commercial Club appeared before the council and presented the request. Sewer districts numbers 37 and 38 were created by the passing of ordinance No. 323.

The Alliance Gun Club held its regular weekly shoot Sunday morning. Their scores were not what they had been in the past, due largely to the fact that R. C. Gladson, who was loading the traps, sent the clay birds going in angles very much out of the ordinary. This was due to give the shooters practice in finding the birds. Nicolai broke 91 out of 100 birds, Stansbury popped 81 out of 100; Jones made 80 of his 100 look sick; Mendenhall queered 40 out of 50, and Smith cracked 33 out of 50.

A young man from Antioch drank more lemon extract than was good for him Monday, with the result that he got on a sour stew. Chief Geo. Snyder was called to the depot at noon and took the young man in charge. He was released on his promise to return to Antioch and go to work. The lemon extract contained, according to the label, fifty per cent alcohol.

Philip Thomas of Hyannis arrived Tuesday for a few days' visit at the home of his mother and with other relatives and friends. He says they had several days of rain there.

P. M. Scott was a Sunday visitor at Scottsbluff.

P. I. Beach went to Edgemont Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Shaw and daughter returned to Hoffman Monday.

C. L. Lester and wife returned to the ranch at Bayard Monday.

Mrs. Fred Feagins was at Hemingford Monday in the interests of the Red Cross work.

Dr. Peterson left for Fremont Sunday.

Miss Blanche Kibble returned from Denver Wednesday on her way to Antioch.

E. J. Macken left Friday night for Charlton, Ia., for a few weeks' visit with friends.

C. J. Wheeler, general car inspector for the Burlington, was in Alliance Thursday and Friday on company business. From here he went to Casper.

Mrs. G. J. Dietlein and children made an over-Sunday visit with friends in Scottsbluff.

Fred Holloway, Burlington machinist, left Saturday for Havelock, for a short visit with friends.

James Rivett, general superintendent of buildings of Lincoln, was in Alliance Wednesday on business.

Mesdames Watson, Lunn, Drake and Parks were at Hemingford Tuesday in attendance at a meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society.

Mrs. MacCray left Wednesday for Colorado Springs for a visit.

Mrs. Carl Spacht of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor the first part of the week.

Mrs. O. Watson of Newcastle, Wyoming, spent a day with her brother, E. Eldred, and family.

Mrs. Frank Herron of Deadwood is here visiting her sister, Mrs. E. A. Hall.

B. H. Johnson and family left Sunday for Kansas City and points in the East.

Memorial services will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday. All old soldiers, whether veterans of the Civil or Spanish-American wars are invited to be present. It is hoped there will be a large crowd in attendance.

Services of the Christian Science Society will be held Sunday in the Old Masonic hall in the Adler block. Sunday school, to which all up to the age of 20 years are admitted, is held at 10 A. M. The regular morning lesson sermon is at 11 A. M. On Wednesday evening at 7:30 P. M., is held the service at which experience, testimonies and remarks on Christian Science are given. All are welcome to the services.

Elting Bennett has taken a position as brakeman on the Burlington.

Clark Denny of Omaha was here on business this week connected with the potash plant at Hoffman.

Mrs. Nell Lyman of Lincoln returned to her home last week following a visit with Mrs. Robert Holden.

Mrs. Walter Shendoll of Omaha arrived Tuesday night for a visit with her brother Joe Smith. Mr. Shendoll who is a civil engineer is in the employ of the Northwestern at Omaha, has enlisted in the army as a civil engineer. Mrs. Shendoll will probably make her home in this city during the time her husband is in the army.